

People

Focus for 2014:

- MTFM London & SE have been focused on a more 'Diverse' Technical Apprentice intake for this year. Out of 9 new Technical Apprentices we can confirm that 4 are Female of which 2 are from Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) and 5 are Male of which 2 are from Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME).
- Launching Mitie Apprenticeship Progression Scheme (MAPS) November
- Diversity initiatives e.g. World of Work Days and Regional Diversity Champions
- Member of Stonewall – charity campaigning for LGBT
- Launch of the LBGT network called 'Proud to be' at Channel 4 in November.
- Launch of the BAME network to coincide with 'Black History Month in October.
- Continued work for the 'Mitie Foundation' and other 'Corporate Social Responsibility' initiatives.

Our Investment & Success:

Apprentices

Antony Law - Operations Director
(See picture)

Andy Amos - Contract Manager,
Ofcom

Phil Fitzgibbon - Contract
Manager, Helix (HNC Qualified)

Mark White - Regional
Combustion and Refrigeration
Manager

Ross Beckett - Project Manager,
City of London

Sam Smith - Hard Services
Manager, City of London

Andrew Mason – Supervisor, City of London (HNC Qualified)

Adam Overton – Supervisor,
London Borough of Hillingdon

Ian Springate – Supervisor, City of London (Higher Apprenticeship)

Joe Thorogood – Supervisor, City of London (Higher Apprenticeship)

Kirsty Johnston – Performance
Manager, MOJ (HNC Qualified)

Rachel Green - Combustion
Supervisor, Transport MOJ (HNC
1st Year)

Daniel Sellers – Electrician, City of London (HNC 2nd Year)

Alfie Covington – Electrician, CoL
(Higher Apprenticeship)

Graduates

William Hulls – Sales Account
Manager

James Bradley – Regional Operations Manager

Jamie Hall – Sales Project
Manager)